Commentators Joel Manning, Andrew Mason, Jamal Smith, Nikhil Uttanchandani and Barry Wilkinson will provide their expert coverage of the historic event.

West Indies Women captain Ms. Hayley Matthews will be the player of the match adjudicator.

There has been an increased interest shown by the public as a result of radio coverage of the ongoing tournament with many spectators attending the matches in great numbers.

BCA President Conde Riley expressed his excitement at the historic step:

'I am thrilled to see since last year the return of crowds watching local cricket. It has been a result of promotion of the game from within our marketing department and also on the radio.

The step to take it on Television is also welcomed.

Anything that the BCA can do to promote local cricket will be fully support by the association.

The communities returning to support their team has also been refreshing'.

The T20 Cup FINAL match will be carried on 92.9FM radio (vob92.9.com) and on the BCA website www.barbadoscricket.org
