BCA NEWS RELEASE #80/24: BARBADOS UNDER 17 SQUAD RETAINS CWI RISING STARS REGIONAL (2-DAY) TITLE IN TRINIDAD & TOBAGO

The SigniaGlobe Financial Inc. Barbados Under 17 squad have retained the CWI Rising Stars Regional (2-day) title in Trinidad & Tobago. This follows another dominant performance over Guyana earlier today and registering their 3rd consecutive victory in the 2-day format.

Another strong all-round team effort will be required as Barbados seeks to repeat as 'double crown champions', leading into the limited overs (50 over) competition that is set to be played during the August 25 to September 2 period.

In an exclusive interview with #bcacricket, captain Joshua Dorne stated:

"The squad is beyond happy with the win, as defending champs we knew the oppositions were going to come at us hard, but everyone had the self-belief that we could bring back the trophy. We've achieved one of our goals as a team but the job is far from finished.

Going into the 50 over its just about taking the momentum from the 2-day format and continue to play the hard and aggressive cricket we've been playing, so we can bring home another trophy."

The champion Barbados Under 17 squad reads:
