BCA NEWS RELEASE #37/25

PASSING OF FORMER FIRST-CLASS CRICKET UMPIRE MR. PATRICK GRAZETTE

Recently the entire cricketing fraternity in Barbados was rocked by the passing of former first-class cricket umpire and match referee Patrick Grazette.

Grazette, who served in many capacities over the years and was also a cherished member of the St. Catherine cricket club died following a brief illness at the age of 73.

Patrick always possessed an infectious smile and with his pleasant personality made a positive impact on the lives of many who came into contact with the former Vice President of the Barbados Cricket Umpires Association (BCUA). He also served as chairman of training for the BCUA.

His easy-going demeanour made him a favourite with all generations of Barbadians.

The funeral details will be provided once confirmed.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of the Barbados Cricket Association, we extend our condolences to his family and friends.

May he Rest in Peace.
