BCA NEWS RELEASE #64/25

CAPTAINS HAVE THEIR SAY LEADING INTO BCA T20 CUP FINAL AT KENSINGTON OVAL TO BE STREAMED LIVE AND BROADCASTED ON RADIO

The eagerly awaited clash to determine the champions of the 2025 BCA T20 Cup competition will be streamed live on the BCA website along with a live broadcast on radio.

Former champions UWI will oppose the impressive Windward club on July 26 at Kensington Oval in the grand final of the competition from 2:00pm.

Expert analysis will be provided by a team of commentators via live stream on www.barbadoscricket.org and will also be heard on VOB 92.9FM radio station.

On the eve of the match captain of the Windward side Tennyson Roach Jr. said his team was keen on creating history for the club:

'We have been preparing well and performing well throughout the season, so it is just for us to come and put our best foot forward. It is a big game, a huge opportunity for us as a team and a club to create history.'

UWI captain Jonathan Carter said his side was confident of capturing another title at Kensington Oval:

'We will stick to what we have been doing well the entire season. We know what we have to work on and pretty confident going into the final. We have been gelling well as a group because we had a few new players who came in from the start of the season…….and our guys are confident in their game.'

Admission into the venue is free.
