BCA NEWS RELEASE # 84/25: BCA THANKS CONDE RILEY AND WINSTON STAFFORD FOR THEIR OUTSTANDING SERVICE TO CRICKET IN BARBADOS

Conde Riley has served in many capacities during his administrative and playing journey for cricket in Barbados. His most recent position as President of the Barbados Cricket Association (BCA) was decorated with a number of achievements that showed his unwavering and true commitment to the development of the game.

His choice not to continue as President, a position held between 2017-2025, may be summarised in a statement provided from Riley prior to the recent BCA elections.

Riley said: 'After several decades of unwavering service and leadership, I officially made the difficult but right decision to retire from my role as president of the BCA board, having completed three distinguished terms effective August 2025. My tenure as President was marked by strong governance, strategic innovation, and an enduring commitment to cricket at all levels—from grassroots programmes to elite competition including the Womens game.'

During his time of service, Riley played a pivotal role in the establishment of the BCA Sir Everton Weekes Centre of Excellence and also led the negotiations with the Stone Hill Company in the provision of apparel and cricket balls used by clubs and schools in the domestic competitions.

Representation and stewardship are words synonymous with former longstanding BCA Board Director Winston Stafford.

His choice not to contest the BCA elections in 2025 followed a long and distinguished period of service to the game on the island.

Stafford served in many administrative roles and also as Chairman of various Committees that included Education, Scholarships and Placements and Clubs Assistance.

He possessed the admirable virtue of ensuring that the concerns of members within the cricket fraternity were placed as priority within the discussions of the Board of Directors.

There are many cricketers in Barbados who have benefitted from the sacrifice and generosity of both Conde Riley and Winston Stafford.

We sincerely thank them for their service and wish them continued success in their retirement.
