BCA NEWS RELEASE #120/25:

BARBADOS MALE AND FEMALE SQUADS SELECTED FOR BOLIVARIAN GAMES IN PERU

Mr. Giovonte Depeiza and Miss Trishan Holder will captain the male and female Barbados squads selected to participate in the Bolivarian Games to be held from November 30 to December 7, 2025 in Lima, Peru.

This will be the first time that cricket is a part of the Bolivarian Games and thus allows the Barbados Cricket Association, and its teams, to be a part of history.

On the eve of the Games, Chief Executive Officer of the Barbados Cricket Association, Mr. Paul Skinner said:

'With cricket in the Pan Am Games in 2027 and the Olympic Games in 2028, the Bolivarian Games presents an ideal opportunity for the Barbados Men's and Women's Cricket Teams to play competitive cricket in Latin America for the first time. The Games provide additional exposure for the teams to compete in a multi-games format, in an unfamiliar environment. This we believe will be another positive step in their development, testing their ability to adapt quickly to new conditions.'
